

Hannah gives Samuel to God

I SAMUEL 1-3

Today in class I learned what the Bible says about...

Hannah gives Samuel to God

I Samuel 1-3

- Elkanah had two wives, Hannah and Peninnah. Peninnah had children and made fun of Hannah because she had none.
- When Hannah was at the temple of the Lord, she prayed to God that if He would give her a child, then she would give him back to God for the rest of his life. The priest, Eli, first thought Hannah was drunk. When he realized she was not, Eli asked that the Lord would grant her request.
- Hannah later had a son and named him Samuel. When he was about 4 years old, Hannah brought him to the temple to serve the Lord for his entire life. Whenever Hannah visited Samuel, she would bring a little coat that she had made for him. God later gave Hannah more sons and daughters.

QUESTIONS YOU CAN ASK ME

What does it say:

- What did Hannah pray for?
- Did Hannah pray out loud?
- How did Hannah pray?
- How did Hannah feel after she prayed?
- What did Hannah promise God if He would give her a son?
- What did Hannah name her baby?
- How did Hannah give the boy Samuel to God?

What does it mean:

- God gives us His best. Shouldn't we give God our best?
- God promises to hear your prayers and answer them according to His will. (1 Jn.5:14)
- What does it mean to serve the Lord?
- Do you pray to God?

What does it mean to me:

Does God want you to give anything to Him?

MY MEMORY VERSE

“For this child I prayed, and the Lord has granted me my petition which I asked of Him.”

I Samuel 1:27
