

JONAH & the Great Fish

JONAH 1:1-2:10

Today in class I learned what the Bible says about...

Jonah & the Great Fish

Jonah 1:1-2:10

- God told Jonah to go the city of Nineveh and tell them to repent, or God would destroy them. Because Jonah didn't want to obey, he got on a ship heading to Tarshish.
- While on the boat, a terrible storm came up and the crew feared for their lives. They determined that Jonah was the reason God brought the storm. Jonah told them to throw him overboard and then the storm would stop.
- After the sailors threw Jonah overboard, a giant fish swallowed Jonah. After living in the fish for three days, Jonah repented and the fish vomited him up on the land.

QUESTIONS YOU CAN ASK ME

- Where did God tell Jonah to go? Why?
- Why didn't Jonah obey God?

What does it mean:

- Why did the sailors throw Jonah overboard?
- What do you think Jonah felt like being inside the fish?

What does it mean to me:

- Can you hide from God?
- Does God know what's best for you?
- Is it possible to run away from God? Why?
- God sees us all the time. Does He see us when we do bad things? Does He see us when we do good things?
